

Word Order Wizard

Translate the sentences/phrases below from French/Spanish to the language(s) you use at home. You could ask your parents or family members to help you. Use a dictionary too, if you need to. Think about the order of the words. Are they the same in both languages? Are there the same number of words in each language?

MFL (French/Spanish)	Language(s) you use at home	What is similar/ different about the sentences?
La porte bleue/La puerta azul	(Italian) La porta blu	The order of the word is the same, the article “la” is used because the word “porta” is feminine, but the adjective “blu” does not change.
La porte bleue/La puerta azul	(Czech) Modré dveře	Czech does not have determiners so only the noun (dveře - door) and the adjective (blue - modré) are used. The adjective has to agree with the noun in gender, case and number and this is shown through the ending -é. The adjective comes before the noun.
La porte bleue/La puerta azul
Le garçon mange du gâteau/ El niño come pastel
